SECOND DAY A HUMMER PARIS TAKES FIRST GAME

Fair Weather Brings Out a Big Crowd and Exhibitions are Excellent.

BABY SHOW A FEATURE.

Premium for Boy Baby Won by Son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cleveland.

Favored by clear skies and ideal weather, the Bourbon Fair enjoyed the most successful second day in the late history of the organization. From every viewpoint the second day was a success, both as a day of splendid exhibitions and for the most brilliant gathering ever seen on the grounds on a similar occasion.

The attendance yesterday eclipsed that of a year ago and was far in excess of the second day two years ago. This was probably due to the fact of the prevailing weather conditions on the opening day of the fair when only a few hours before the opening of the gates heavy rains fell which had the effect of keeping a large number away on the opening day but yesterday made up for the deficiency in the way of attendance.

The events postponed from Monday on account of the condition of the show ring, were taken up the first thing yesterday morning, and before the close of the day the entire program, both the postponed events and the program of yesterday were completed.

The principal ring of the morning came under the harness horse class when Allie Jones, of North Middletown, and Matlack & Shropshire, of Winchester, matched their famous show horses, Roberta and Jackstraw, in the ring for this class. Roberta came out with the blue tie with the beautiful Jackstraw a close second.

The colt show brought out six entries all of which showed up to the best advantage. The premium for this event was awarded to W. E. Speakes & Bro., of this county, on their undefeated show colt, Mildred King, which took the blue ties at both the Blue Grass and Capitol fairs. Sanford Carpenter and Wm. Sanders, of Millersburg, came in for second and third respectively.

In the harness class for stallions of four years old and over, Allie Jones pitted Marvel King against Collins & Redmon's great show stallion, Teddy Roosevelt. These were the only two entries in this class and the first premium was awarded to Marvel King while Teddy Roosevelt drew the second.

The rings for harness ponies brought together eight stylish performers, among them being L. L. Haggin's famous show pony which took a premium at the London, England, horse show. The contest finally dwindled down between Mr. Haggin's entry and that of Walter Warren, of Lexington, the former receiving the first premium.

A feature which has attracted largely year after year was the baby show, and this brought out six handsome boy babies under eighteen months old. Mrs. Wm. Talbott, Mrs. Frank Clay and Mrs. Thos. Clay acted as judges. The following babies were entered in the contest: James and Charles, sons of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Rose, 12 months; Wm. K. Dudley, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. K. Dudley, 14 months; son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Blackberry, of the county, 14 months; Oscar Louis Hume, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Hume, 18 months; Crowmell C. Cleveland, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Crowmell C. Cleveland, aged 16 months; son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cain, of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Well, of Little Rock. The judges finally reached a decision and awarded the premium to the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Crowmell C. Cleveland.

Today is expected to be the banner day of the week of the fair in point of attendance and features. The principal event will be the sweepstakes for harness horse, and will bring together some of the best blood in the country. This premium of $200 is a special by the directors of the Bourbon County Agricultural Society and is divided into four parts. Following are yesterday's awards:

Defeat Hustlers By Score of 2 to 1 in First Game of Championship Series.

SHEARS PERFORMS WELL.

Harrell and Kuhlman Put Up a Star Exhibition in Field for the Locals.

In the first game of the championship series of the Blue Grass League at Winchester Wednesday afternoon, Paris came out the victor, winning a close and exciting game by the score of two to one. The contest was a pitchers' battle between Shears for Paris and Burden for the Hustlers in which the former excelled.

McKernan chose Shears to pitch the opener because of his performance against the Hustlers last Saturday in the contest which resulted in a complete blanking for Coleman and his men and the big side-wheeler showed his class in the opening tilt.

Burden showed signs of returning to his old time form but he was not equal to the determined Bourbonites who laid onto his slants for ten safe bingles. Heretofore the Hustler mainstay has been very effective against Paris, and his strikeouts were numerous but on this occasion he whiffed but three of the locals, while Shears fanned an even half dozen of the opposing batters.

The Bourbonites put up a fast fielding game, and while the Hustlers hit the ball hard and frequently, it was difficult for them to get their drives beyond the reach of the Paris fielders.

The first run of the game came in the second session. Maxwell, the first up, sent a stinging drive through the pitcher's box and was advanced to the second station by Kuhlman's sacrifice. Chapman singled to the center garden and Shears sent a short fly to the right field, Brown, Walsh and Lake making an effort to get the ball, which fell safely, Maxwell scoring. Harrell lined to Olson who doubled Chapman at second.

Harrell's steal, Laross' error and McKernan's single in the fifth, put a crimp in the Hustlers, when another run was pushed over the rubber. Chapman bounced one to Burden and Shears rolled one down the third base line to Goostree and was out. Harrell singled to right and pilfered the second sack, going to third on Laross' low peg and scored when McKernan singled to the left garden.

The Hustlers counted their only run in their half of the fifth. Laross bunted and went out Mayer to Barnett. Lake grounded to Shears and Coleman singled to right. Burden followed with a double in the same territory, scoring Coleman. Walsh walked and Reed hit a stinger over second which Harrell stopped with a wonderful effort, forcing Walsh at second.

This ended the run getting on either side and the contest closed with Paris one to the good. The features of the game were the fielding of Kuhlman and Harrell, each performing some very difficult stunts at short and third, robbing several of the Winchester men of what looked to be clean hits. The score is as follows:

Battles—Paris, Shears and Mayer; Winchester, Burden and Laross. Errors—McKernan, Walsh, Goostree, Laross and Burden. Hits—Paris 10, Winchester 9. Earned runs—Paris 1, Winchester 2. Two base hits—Burden, bases on balls—off Shears 1, off Burden 1. Stolen bases—Harrell, Olson. Struck out—by Shears 6, by Burden 3. Left on bases—Paris 8, Winchester 8. Sacrifice hits—Kuhlman, Goostree. Double plays—Olson to Walsh. First base on errors—Paris 2. Time—1:55. Umpire—Kane.

H. J. Santen's Father Dies.

Mr. Bernard Santen, aged 78 years, died at his home in Cincinnati Wednesday night at 12 o'clock of infirmities incident to old age after a protracted illness. The deceased was the father of Mr. H. J. Santen, of this city, who was at his bedside when he passed away, being summoned on account of his critical illness Wednesday morning.

Mr. Santen is survived by seven children, Mr. H. J. Santen, of Paris; John and Joseph Santen, of Cincinnati; Bernard Santen, of Columbus; Rev. H. M. Santen, of Hamilton; Mrs. Mary Nichol, of Reading, O.; and Mrs. Louis Rhabe, of Cincinnati.

The funeral services will be held at nine o'clock Saturday morning at the Holy Trinity church, conducted by Rev. Father Rhombeau. The burial will take place in the St. Joseph cemetery, Cincinnati.

Mrs. Henry Santen will leave tomorrow with her daughters, Misses Rosalia and Frank, to attend the funeral, and her sons, Bernard, Henry and Herman Santen will go to Cincinnati Saturday morning.

The most entertaining feature at the fair this week and which was thoroughly enjoyed by the visitors was the vocal selections rendered by Miss Wilmina Hamman. Yesterday afternoon Miss Hamman made her first appearance and scored a decided hit. Miss Hamman rendered three selections, "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," "I'd Love to Live in Loveland," and "Every Little Movement."

She was compelled to respond to encores following each number. Miss Hamman possesses a rich, clear voice, strong and sweet and her enunciation is perfect. This afternoon Miss Hamman will render several selections and it is safe to say that with each afternoon she will gain in favor.

Public Sale of Desirable Bourbon County Farm.

Being compelled, on account of ill health, to locate permanently in the West, I have placed my farm in the hands of Harris & Speakes, Paris, Ky., to be sold at public auction on Thursday, September 14, 1911, at 2 O'clock, p. m., on the Premises, one-fourth mile from Millersburg, Ky.,

near the Maysville and Lexington turnpike. It contains 107 1-2 acres, and is a part of the late Jeff Vimont place. This is a splendid farm and a beautiful country home, very desirable, being located in an excellent neighborhood and close to Millersburg, one of the best educational points in the state. It is well-fenced and has plenty of water. There are 10 acres now in tobacco, 30 acres in corn, and balance in old blue-grass sod.

It has a modern and convenient frame cottage, practically new, and built of the very best material. It contains six rooms, bath, large pantry, presses, porch around entire house, good cellar with concrete floor, water-works, and piped for acetylene light. There is a good stock barn and other out-buildings, all in first-class repair.

Possession of house, yard and garden will be given Oct. 1st, with the usual seeding privileges of farm.

TERMS—One-third cash, balance in one and two years.

A. T. VIMONT.

For further information, call on or address HARRIS & SPEAKES, Paris, Ky., who will take pleasure in showing the farm on or before day of sale.

GEO. D. SPEAKES, Auctioneer.
